Hungry World Generous God

Cheap food costs the earth

Tuesday 15 October 2013

10.30am - 3.30pm

Methodist Church House

25 Marylebone Road, London NW1 5JR
nearest Tube Station Baker Street

Be challenged about our personal and corporate response to the global food crisis. Think theologically about how food shapes our landscape, cities, streets, houses, politics, economics, societies and cultures.

SPEAKERS

Geoff Tansey

Writer, broadcaster and consultant

The Revd Dr Neil Richardson

Past President of the Methodist Conference

Organised jointly by the Arthur Rank Centre and the Lincolnshire District of the Methodist Church
