

Leadership Book Club

A book club for leaders – lay and ordained, exercising formal and informal leadership in the Methodist church.

A place to discuss, wrestle with, challenge and share our experiences, using two books on leadership in changing times to provide a focus for our conversations.

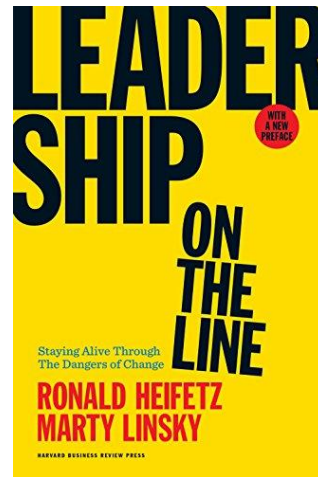

All take place on zoom, 7.30-9.00 pm

Book 1: Leadership on the Line
Staying alive through the dangers of change
by Ronald Heifetz and Marty Linsky

13th January 2022
Part 1: The Challenge

15th March 2022
Part 2: The response

19th May 2022
Part 3: Body and Soul

Hosted by Rev Dr Andrew Lunn (Chair of Manchester and Stockport District) and Alison Ball (Coordinator of the Learning Network) on behalf of the North West and Mann Region it is open to all. You can come to all the sessions or drop in and out, as you are able. We hope it will grow into a group journeying together wanting to be effective in leadership in a changing world.

Book 2: How to lead when you don't know where you're going

Leading in a Liminal Season
by Revd Susan Beaumont

14th July 2022
Chapters 1-3: Leading with Presence and Tending the Soul of the Institution

11th October 2022
Chapters 4-5: Deepening Group Discernment and Shaping Institutional Memory

6th December 2022
Chapters 6-7: Clarifying purpose and Engaging Emergence

Book a space on Eventbrite: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/leadership-book-club-for-leaders-in-the-methodist-church-tickets-203851404037>
Further information from Alison Ball, balla@methodistchurch.org.uk

